LEADERSHIP GIVING

Leadership Giving at United Way is multi-generational, engaging donors of all ages and levels in the philanthropic process and drawing on their unique values, priorities and approaches to shape a thriving community, now and in the future.

UNITED WAY
Central Oklahoma

LEGACY SOCIETY

Legacy Society donors create a sustainable, transformative impact for all served by United Way and its Partner Agencies through a planned gift, such as a life insurance benefit or retirement fund/IRA, cash, stocks, or property bequest, and/or an endowment gift. These strategic gifts ensure that our community continues to thrive, now and in the future.

LEGACY SOCIETY RECOGNITION:

- United Way's Legacy Society Donor Wall ($10,000+ gifts)
- Annual Leadership Giving Registry
- Invitations to exclusive events

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

United Way's Tocqueville Society is named after 19th century French philosopher and historian Alexis de Tocqueville, who recognized the importance of taking substantive voluntary action to serve the common good.

The Tocqueville Society is comprised of our community's most generous business and philanthropic leaders. Members of this elite group create a significant, sustainable impact where they live and work through their annual contributions of $10,000 or more to United Way.

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY BENEFITS:

- Picture in Leadership Giving Registry
- Invitations to exclusive events

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP SOCIETY

United Way's Women's Leadership Society (WLS) unites women – their time, talent and resources – into a powerful network of individuals who utilize the power of female philanthropy to enhance and strengthen opportunities for all in our community.

Members contribute a minimum of $2,500 annually to United Way and enjoy year-round networking, educational and volunteer opportunities.

WLS MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS:

- Join a group of Oklahoma's most dedicated female philanthropists
- Network with influential, community-minded women
- Invitations to exclusive events

EMERGING LEADERS

Through Emerging Leaders (EL), local young professionals grow into tomorrow's most influential business, community and philanthropic leaders. Members create strong networks of like-minded peers and connect to the mission of United Way and its Partner Agencies.

With an annual minimum donation of $500, EL members serve our community through enthusiastic leadership and invested engagement in a various activities, including interaction with central Oklahoma's most prominent leaders, professional development opportunities, fun social networking events, community impact initiatives, Partner Agency tours and volunteer projects.

EMERGING LEADERS MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS:

- Opportunity to serve on EL Steering Committee and its subcommittees
- Opportunity to serve on Community Investment Committee
- Networking and Professional Development
