LEADERSHIP GIVING REGISTRY

2025-2026

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

UNITED IS THE WAY

Last year was a defining year for our United Way – a year of bold change, renewed energy and deeper commitment to the community we serve.

We began by unveiling a refreshed brand, including a vibrant new logo “taken out of the box” and brighter colors that better reflect who we are today. This new look represents more than a design change – it symbolizes our belief that everyone belongs, and that United Way is here to serve all in our community.

In October, our Partner Agencies experienced a surge of need at their food pantries. In response, United Way launched an Emergency Food Drive, and the community’s support was swift and inspiring.

From October 24 through November 14, neighbors across Oklahoma, Canadian and Logan counties stepped up through online wish lists, scannable QR codes and multiple drop-off locations.

Thanks to this outpouring of generosity, our United Way team received, sorted, inventoried and immediately distributed 9,543 nonperishable food items and $81,480 to our Partner Agencies, helping to close a rapidly growing gap. We are grateful to all our donors, especially BancFirst, for their monetary match.

This effort demonstrated the strength of our community and reaffirmed that United Way is ready, willing and able to respond to critical needs, supporting both our Partner Agencies and our neighbors who rely on them.

With loyal supporters like you by our side, we can continue driving positive change, expanding opportunity and ensuring our entire community thrives.

On behalf of our board of directors, volunteers, Partner Agencies and staff, thank you for showing us that United is the Way.

Sincerely,

Rachel C. Holt

GENERATIONAL GIVING

Bill Cameron and his daughters, Claire Cameron, Liza Reilly and Caroline Ikard

CAMERON FAMILY A Foundation of Giving

Oklahoma City native, Bill Cameron, was 1 year old when his father and grandfather co-founded American Fidelity in 1960.

The family's contributions to the community are extensive. Bill's father, C.B. Cameron, and mother, JoCarol Cameron, were co-founders of Westminster School in Oklahoma City.

Bill, who is the third-generation owner of American Fidelity, said his understanding of philanthropy deepened after becoming immersed in the family business. John Rex, who would become a leader of American Fidelity, also influenced Bill's understanding of United Way of Central Oklahoma (UWCO).

Rex became president of American Fidelity in 1992 after Bill's father died in a plane crash.

For his unwavering commitment to United Way and the Oklahoma City community, Rex received the Richard H.

Bill Cameron & John Rex

Clements Lifetime Achievement Award in 2001, UWCO's most prestigious honor. The 1998 UWCO board chair and 1999 campaign chair is often remembered for his tenacity in rallying support to address community issues. He and his wife, Berta Faye Rex, are also the namesakes of the John & Berta Faye Rex Community Builder Award, another UWCO volunteer honor.

The American Fidelity Foundation, which was founded in 1985, was also instrumental in teaching Bill about United Way.

“If you’re able to, then you should support your community that has been good to you,” Bill said. “United Way is such a great umbrella that reaches everybody in the city.”

American Fidelity is now one of UWCO’s top four largest workplace campaigns, raising more than $13 million throughout the span of 60-plus years. Their collective company impact is more than $15 million.

“I feel good that our people support United Way that strongly,” Bill said. “United Way is the most efficient way to give to the overall support of the community.”

Bill’s daughters, Caroline Ikard, Liza Reilly and Claire Cameron, are fourth-generation American Fidelity owners. The sisters oversee different functions of the company’s subsidiaries.

“My sisters and I do not take the giving that has been modeled for us from generations of family for granted,” Caroline said. “We love Oklahoma City and want to see it continue to be a city that is thriving for all its citizens. With help from the United Way, we are able to focus our dollars where it will make the most impact for our community.”

Liza primarily oversees family matters across First Fidelity Bank, Investrust Wealth Management, American Public Life Oklahoma City, and the Dallas Wings Community Foundation.

For the last several years, Claire has gained commercial sales experience at INSURICA, one of the nation’s top 30 largest independent insurance brokerages. Most recently, she stepped into overseeing the subsidiary’s practice groups.

Liza equated United Way to insurance – it’s not always the flashiest investment, but it positively affects everyone’s lives.

“We as a company always prioritize our customers and we as family owners prioritize our Colleagues,” Liza said. “Seeing that translate not only in the business but in the communities we serve is special and makes it feel like a family giving heart.”

The sisters also attribute the family’s strong philanthropic foundation to their grandmothers, JoCarol and Judy Love, who were both significant supporters of United Way and the Oklahoma City community.

JoCarol was a Platinum United Way donor, giving to the organization for more than 20 years. Her involvement throughout the Oklahoma City community included serving on several boards and hosting events for organizations like the Junior League, Renaissance Ball and many others.

Judy Love, a founding UWCO Women’s Leadership Society member, served as the organization’s campaign co-chair in 2015 and 2020, collectively helping to raise more than $42 million for the community. She is also a Richard H. Clements Lifetime Achievement Award honoree.

“We were lucky to grow up with those role models,” Claire said. “Their commitment to the city was incredible.”

Community heroes like JoCarol, Rex and Love, are what makes Oklahoma City special, Bill added. They believed in their role in making the community a better place to live, he said.

And so do the Cameron sisters.

“It’s because of [our grandparents and past company leaders] that we’re able to have this privilege, and it’s our responsibility to keep this community growing and secure for the next generation,” Claire said.

THE NEXT CHAPTER – STAY UNITED

ELLEN FLEMING
A Loyal Contributor

Ellen Fleming has always been aware of United Way. She remembered her parents giving to the local United Way in western Oklahoma.

But it was her employment at Bank of Oklahoma (BOK) that would instill in Fleming the mission of United Way and giving back to the central Oklahoma community.

The Woodward, Oklahoma native recalled how BOK motivated employees to give to United Way and made the process easy through payroll deduction, even offering incentives for donating. Now retired after 44 years at BOK, Fleming understands the vital role Stay United plays in continuing her involvement with United Way.

Stay United is an affinity group of United Way of Central Oklahoma (UWCO). It was established in 2024 for retirees or those approaching retirement who wish to remain engaged with United Way and its Partner Agencies through educational events and volunteer opportunities.

Many of Fleming's friends who have retired did not have the opportunity to give to United Way through their workplaces, she shared.

“[Through Stay United], we can educate and inform people about how they can continue to stay involved or begin for the first time after they retire,” Fleming said.

Stay United could not have been a better fit for the former institutional wealth advisor, who administered retirement plans for corporations as part of her leadership at BOK. Fleming's team also managed investments for nonprofits.

Her understanding of nonprofit work has grown since she became a founding member of UWCO's Women's Leadership Society in 2012 and, most recently, joining Stay United.

“What has impressed me the most is how much they do with so little, not just financially but with resources overall, and the collaboration,” Fleming said, tears welling in her eyes. “The way these nonprofits collaborate with each other is absolutely amazing.”

Fleming enjoyed volunteering at local agencies while she was at BOK but was always balancing her volunteer time with the demands of her job. Now, she feels like she can relax and truly absorb the information being shared at United Way events and volunteer opportunities.

“I don't want people to think that [Stay United's] mission is to get people to give more money after they retire,” Fleming said. “This is not about that at all. This is about giving them an opportunity to engage with the community to see all the wonderful resources and what good use [the Partner Agencies] are making of their dollars and how critical United Way is to that.”

Many of the nonprofits' budgets are small, Fleming added. United Way's funding is steady income for them, she noted.

Stay United is not the only affinity group UWCO has to offer. Fleming compares its Leadership Giving Association to a menu, where individuals, spouses and organizations can choose what path fits best for them.

“United Way meets you where you are,” she said.

Fleming served as the first female board president of the Last Frontier Council, Scouting America, an original UWCO Partner Agency. In that role, she witnessed how United Way's board of directors, committees and Community Investment volunteers build trust in the community.

“[The trust] gives donors a lot of peace because they know the decisions to give the money away are made prudently and widely, not by a small number of people,” Fleming said.

Each year, nearly 200 donor volunteers participate in the annual Community Investment process, which determines the distribution of allocable dollars to United Way-funded programs at local nonprofits.

Fleming encourages individuals to attend UWCO's events to learn more about its mission and how their gifts of time and treasure make a difference at the Partner Agencies it supports.

Donating to United Way for more than 30 years leaves Fleming feeling deeply humbled.

“It makes me realize how lucky I've been, from the places I've worked to the inspiration of my family,” she said.

You can learn more about Stay United and UWCO's Leadership Giving Association by visiting UnitedWayOKC.org

“What has impressed me the most is how much they do with so little, not just financially but with resources overall, and the collaboration,” Fleming said, tears welling in her eyes. “The way these nonprofits collaborate with each other is absolutely amazing.”

LEGACY SOCIETY

The Legacy Society provides individuals, families and corporations the opportunity to extend their United Way support in a sustainable way by investing in future generations. Members contribute or declare their intention to contribute planned gifts and/or endowment gifts. Legacy Society donors of $10,000 or more may be recognized on our Legacy Society Donor Wall in the Legacy Room at United Way of Central Oklahoma's office.

WHY INVEST IN UNITED WAY'S LEGACY?

Jenee Naifeh Lister & Darren Lister

“We give to United Way annually because there is no way to pick just one organization to support. With every donation, we can impact so many segments of our community. United Way also provides the essential oversight of its Partner Agencies that is so important. We also support United Way’s endowment to ensure that more annual United Way funding goes to work in our community today and to sustain United Way’s mission well into the future.”

JENE NAIFEH LISTER, Legacy Society Member

PLANNED LEGACY GIVING

Leaving a legacy of hope for United Way and its Partner Agencies that lasts for generations, planned giving donors contribute or declare their intent to contribute to United Way via a variety of vehicles, including listing United Way as beneficiary of a life insurance policy or retirement fund/IRA, cash, stocks or property bequests in a will, DAF contributions and more.

Planned gifts are essential in ensuring that our amazing Partner Agencies can continue providing central Oklahomans the resources we need to live and thrive, now and in the future.

ENDOWMENT LEGACY GIVING

Thanks in large part to Legacy Society members who contributed to our 100th Anniversary endowment campaign, our combined endowment funds held at Oklahoma City Community Foundation and Communities Foundation of Oklahoma now exceed $7 million. Our long-term goal is to grow our endowment to a level where the expendable yearly distribution covers all operating expenses and 100% of each dollar raised during our annual campaign goes directly to funded Partner Agency programs.

THANK YOU, 2025 LEGACY SOCIETY DONORS!

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

United Way's Tocqueville Society is formed by our most generous and community-centric philanthropic leaders – those who are committed to investing in the welfare of our community and caring for our most vulnerable citizens. At the forefront of their minds is the need for sustainable and tangible solutions to our community's most challenging problems.

Tocqueville members generously contribute $10,000 or more annually to United Way, leaving a resounding impact on central Oklahomans in need. Their contributions ensure Partner Agency funding and support for generations to come – and for that, we couldn't be more thankful.

Alexis de Tocqueville, for whom the society is named, famously documented the American public's unique willingness to work for the public welfare – a tendency to lend faithful support to neighbors and countrymen, especially in times of need.

DAN & ANDREA BOREN

“Andrea and I choose to invest in United Way’s mission as Leadership donors because we see its daily impact through the work of its Partner Agencies and other innovative programs. As a member of its Board of Directors, I can affirm that while United Way aims to serve as many of our neighbors as possible each year, it is also creating new pathways to establish long-term financial stability so that our community can thrive, now and in the future. We don’t know what tomorrow might bring, so giving to United Way in all the ways we can now provides assurance that it will continue to be there for future generations.”

ORTLOFF FAMILY

“For our family, supporting United Way of Central Oklahoma has always been about investing in the people and the future of our community. Oklahoma is strongest when neighbors show up for one another, and United Way helps make that happen by bringing together nonprofits, businesses and volunteers to tackle some of our community’s most important challenges. We give because we know our dollars are thoughtfully invested in programs that strengthen families and create opportunities. We volunteer because it helps connect our family to the work and the people behind it. For us, supporting United Way is simply one way we can help make central Oklahoma an even better place to live.”

TAMESHA RAYES

“As a retired veteran, I have a passion for working for the community. I feel personally connected to United Way’s mission to provide opportunities rather than handouts. Over time, I was inspired to do more. I wanted to have a greater impact. I believe the community benefits and thrives when resources are available. That is what United Way provides: hope. One of my favorite quotes is “Leave the world better than you found it.” I have been blessed with a helping hand, and I will always pay it forward.”

United Way of Central Oklahoma

25TH ANNIVERSARY

Gala

2025 CAMPAIGN

The 2025 Campaign raised more than $19.5 million. Thanks to dedicated supporters like you, we can fund 125 health and human service programs across 66 Partner Agencies serving Oklahoma, Canadian and Logan counties.

Again, we extend our appreciation to our 2025 Campaign Co-Chairs Lee & Suzie Symcox, for their dedication to our organization and Partner Agencies.

VOLUNTEER AWARD WINNERS

We were honored to recognize four outstanding Volunteer Award winners this year at our Gala.

These community-minded leaders put others before themselves without the expectation of recognition. Their service leaves a lasting legacy of hope.

We would like to congratulate this year's Volunteer Award winners once again for their exceptional devotion to our community.

DONOR-DIRECTED DONATIONS

Donor-directed donations provide individuals and organizations with an opportunity to invest in solutions addressing our community's most pressing needs. United Way of Central Oklahoma ensures that these investments in our Partner Agencies are used in compliance with our proven standards of program and donor accountability.

Thank you to our 2025 donor-directed donors. Your gifts provided early childhood education opportunities, access to supportive care for children of all abilities, continued advancement of medical research and more.

For more than 100 years, United Way of Central Oklahoma has partnered with Sunbeam Family Services to support families across generations, helping the organization grow and adapt to meet the needs of our community. That long-standing investment is reflected in families like Crystal's.

ReMerge mothers pose for a group photo in the agency's newly constructed Graduate Center, which was made possible through support of its capital campaign that included a generous donor-directed gift from Love's Travel Stops.

RESTRICTED GRANTS EMERGENCY FOOD DRIVE

In the fall of 2025, our United Way initiated an Emergency Food Drive in response to a sudden rise in food insecurity, due to the reduction of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits. UWCO's Partner Agencies reported a surge in demand for food assistance, prompting this urgent call to action, which the community answered in spades.

Donors brought food to locations throughout Oklahoma, Logan and Canadian counties, and the items were inventoried and immediately brought to the Partner Agencies to distribute to those in need.

Along with food items, many companies and individuals donated financially. BancFirst became a lead corporate partner, offering as drop-off sites across the metro and matching monetary donations. More than 9,500 food items were distributed, and $81,480 was donated.

The Emergency Food Drive in the fall of 2025 proved that our United Way and our community are willing and able to respond to the needs of central Oklahomans, no matter the situation. Our team could not be more grateful.

EMBRACEOKC

EmbraceOKC is a program seeking to improve the behavioral, emotional and social well-being of Oklahoma City Public Schools students and their families through school-based mental health services. The initiative includes screening students for early detection and intervention, as well as training school staff in mental health and psychological first aid and de-escalation techniques. In 2025, United Way of Central Oklahoma received a gift from Steve & Alena Dixon to support EmbraceOKC.

COMPANY GIVING

In addition to the generous individuals who lead with philanthropic hearts for our community, hundreds of companies have made significant contributions to United Way of Central Oklahoma. With donations ranging from $5,000 to more than $1 million, support from the following companies – through employee campaigns or gifts from the organization itself – has continued to grow.

CHERI SHEPARD

“I have been involved with United Way ever since I entered the workforce many years ago. From donating to its many impactful agencies, to leading company campaigns, to serving on allocation committees, my heart has always been aligned with United Way’s mission to mobilize the caring power of communities and advance the common good. As a United Way Leadership Giver, I’m proud to help build a better future for our communities by supporting long-term, proven programs that address the root causes of these challenges. I know that my contribution – together with those of many others – is helping create a stronger, more vibrant community where everyone can thrive.”

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP SOCIETY

United Way of Central Oklahoma's Women's Leadership Society unites women – their time, talents and resources – into a remarkable group of individuals devoted to enhancing and strengthening the community. Approximately 500 community-minded women give $2,500 or more annually and are the backbone of powerful women supporting our United Way.

We are pleased to offer a unique giving option for these philanthropic leaders – our Step-Up to WLS program. This program allows interested WLS members to reach the $2,500 level over a three-year period and receive recognition as a full member from the start.

WLS provides numerous educational opportunities to engage with renowned speakers and community leaders who discuss current challenges and trends relevant to central Oklahoma, as well as events to better the individuals served by United Way through the collaboration of networking and philanthropy.

A driven group of female philanthropists, the focus of WLS is developing future leadership through educational opportunities and a shared vision of community engagement.

COMMUNITY & CONVERSATIONS

For the first time, WLS members had the opportunity to participate in a volunteer project and exercise during one of our Community & Conversations events. Members helped count donations for our Partner Agency, Citizens Caring for Children, and learned about the hurdles many youth experiencing homelessness face when looking for resources in the community through a simulation with Pivot, another UWCO Partner Agency.

Jane Thompson & Lexi Skaggs count socks in Citizens Caring for Children's inventory warehouse.

Roberta B. Fields participates in Pivot's resource simulation exercise to learn about the barriers youth experiencing homelessness face in the community.

Members hear from Pivot's President & CEO Jennifer Goodrich and Citizens Caring for Children's Executive Director Lynne Roller during the event. Each Community & Conversations event allows for a Q&A portion for members to gain deeper understanding of community issues.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The 13th annual WLS recruitment luncheon featured a powerful presentation from K.J. Kindler, University of Oklahoma Women's Gymnastics Head Coach. Coach Kindler shared insight into her own life and how women can support each other, and learn from each other, no matter the generation.

EMERGING LEADERS

Young professionalism is epitomized by nearly 700 Emerging Leaders. Coupled with annual contributions of $500 or more, Emerging Leaders serve their community through invested involvement and enthusiastic leadership.

The Emerging Leaders Steering Committee meets monthly to discuss activities and more.

Members are actively involved throughout the year, participating in Partner Agency tours, professional development lunches, a Senior Holiday Gala, the group's signature recruitment event, Raising the Stakes, and United Way of Central Oklahoma's annual cornhole tournament, The Hole Shebang!

EMERGING LEADERS EVENTS

Emerging Leaders saw record attendance at the fall Lunches with Leaders event at Expand Energy. Members heard from local leaders on the importance of work-life balance, community engagement and more. Thank you to our speakers: Arvest Bank President & CEO Shandy Belford, Cox Communications Oklahoma City Market Vice President Katy Boren, Expand CEO Nick Dell'Osso and OG&E President & CEO Sean Trauschke.

Current and prospective Emerging Leaders enjoy casino games during Raising the Stakes. This fun event encourages members to recruit prospective Emerging Leaders.

Emerging Leaders and their families volunteer to stuff stockings and gift bags for the annual Senior Holiday Gala. The event serves as a magical holiday evening for local seniors served by UWCO Partner Agencies. Each senior receives a warm holiday meal and stocking stuffed with goodies at the Gala.

Emerging Leaders volunteer as scorekeepers for UWCO's annual fundraising cornhole tournament, The Hole Shebang! The tournament is comprised of nearly 200 players, all vying for bragging rights and the Traveling Cornhole Cup. The event serves as a signature volunteer project for Emerging Leaders.

Emerging Leaders volunteer to serve guests and distribute gifts, stockings and bags at the annual Senior Holiday Gala.

 1 ANONYMOUS MEMBER

Emerging Leaders learn about Skyline, a United Way of Central Oklahoma Partner Agency. Members attend Partner Agency tours throughout the year to see their donor dollars at work, first-hand.

* Denotes Platinum Donors - those who have given for 20 years or more.

UNITED WAY OF CANADIAN COUNTY

Canadian County Leadership Giving Association members are creating lasting impact by investing in their community. Each year, their generous gifts of $500 or more provide hope and life-changing resources for thousands of Canadian County residents in need.

BECKY STEVENS

“One of the great things about United Way is that it helps people of all generations. When we all donate even a small amount, the pool of funds we create together makes a significant impact.”

UNITED WAY OF LOGAN COUNTY

Logan County Leadership Giving Association members are dedicated to supporting the needs of their neighbors and community. With annual contributions of $500 or more, the generosity of these individuals goes to support programs and resources that are making a true difference in Logan County.

TINA HEYVAERT

“I have been a donor for many years and have had the pleasure of working with the Board. Seeing the work of our Partner Agencies first-hand is a real blessing, and knowing that the funds we raise together are utilized to serve our local community is one of the many reasons I remain a loyal Leadership donor to United Way.”
